

STACKING & STORAGE

SHORT DESCRIPTION OF COURSE AND EXPECTED COMPETENCIES

Students will, after passing the prescribed exam:

This unit standard is for those people giving an induction of health and safety principles to new personnel and the person credited with this unit standard is able to explain the duties of both the employees and employers with regard to Occupational Safety and Health in the workplace. Learners will be able to understand the requirements that apply to persons entering the workplace and performing any duties therein as well as the requirements for the use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) housekeeping and emergency procedures that apply to the workplace.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Explaining both employer and employee duties with regard to occupational safety and health in the workplace.
2. Explaining the general safety rules in a workplace.
3. Explaining the use and application of Personal Protective Equipment in a workplace.
4. Explaining the need for good housekeeping the workplace.
5. Explaining and applying emergency procedures in the workplace.
6. Explain and apply stacking and storage procedures as per OHS Act.

DURATION OF COURSE	1 Days	MINIMUM STUDENTS	5
EXPECTED PASS MARK	80%	MAXIMUM STUDENTS	15
TARGET POPULATION	Management and supervisors. SHE practitioners and SHE representatives. Stacking and storage supervisors and staff.
UNIT STANDARD	259639	CREDITS	4
NQF LEVEL	2

TO ATTEND THE ABOVE COURSE/S THE STUDENT MUST MEET THESE MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

1. STUDENTS WILL BRING PEN, PENCIL, RULER AND WRITING PAD TO THE COURSE.
2. STUDENTS MUST BE ON TIME TO START THE COURSE.
3. MUST BE LITERATE IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

The unit Standard outcomes and credits are based on the assumption that learners attempting this Unit Standard can already read, write and communicate at NQF Level 1 or equivalent.

EXAMS/TESTS WILL BE DONE ON: THE MORNING OF THE LAST DAY – COVERING THE WHOLE COURSE.